Mr. Temperino, a 35-year-old union electrician, claimed that he fell from a ladder while performing construction work on a laboratory at Rockefeller University. Plaintiff asserted claims under New York State Labor Law sections 200, 240(1) and 241(6), seeking a multi-million dollar verdict. The jury unanimously rejected his claim at the conclusion of the liability phase of the trial, finding plaintiff was the sole proximate cause of his own accident

Plaintiff was represented by Talisman & DeLorenz and trial counsel Kenneth J. Ready, Esq.
